From Your Priest:

"Are You into the Trinity?"

We celebrate the Holy Trinity this Sunday. It is a special Sunday—the only Feast Day in the Church that does not focus on a remarkable figure, or a great event like Christmas, Easter or Pentecost. It's a day for doctrine, I suppose, but not that alone; it is so much more than that. What we are celebrating is God as God has been revealed to us. As love. In love. It is like trying to capture light in a jar. We may struggle to grasp the infinite love that is God, but as we embrace the ways that God has revealed that love to us, we celebrate this Sunday, joyful in a God that dwarfs the collective human imagination. We are a church of the Holy Trinity, the Triune God. This gives us an opportunity to celebrate, to contemplate, and to worship in the beauty of holiness. To know this God is life changing.
