From Your Priest:

"A Little Mustard, Please"

Luke 17:5-10

Jesus speaks of faith as little in size as a mustard seed—each one of us a seed. The farmers and gardeners understand mustard seeds in a way the rest of us don't. It only takes a handful of mustard seeds to ruin an otherwise orderly planting of crops. Mustard seeds take root, then invade and ultimately take over. Mustard seeds sprout anywhere, under any circumstances, in any weather. Once in the air and falling to the ground, it is almost impossible to control mustard. Is there a chance that Jesus is reminding us that we already have enough faith, particularly in the Church, to spread the Gospel far and wide, and to accomplish all that God needs us to do? "Oh, I wish I just had more faith," we often say. Or, "If I just had a little more faith, then. . ." Is Jesus calling us to let go of that? He may want us to let the mustard seeds take to the air and catch ground.

THINK ON THIS:

"God made you to love Him supremely, but he lost you. He returned to get you back, but it took the cross to do it. He absorbed your darkness so that one day you can finally and dazzlingly become your true self and take your seat at His eternal feast."

- — Timothy Keller, Jesus the King-Understanding the Life and Death of the Son of God, 2011.

For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not perish but may have eternal life. John 3:16
