From Your Priest:

"The Power of a Call"

Matthew 4:12-23

We've all gotten an important call from time to time. Before cell phones, even before telephones, a spoken call or message was much less frequent and, perhaps, had more impact. Still, we remember those calls: that which changed our lives. We hear about the archetypal call from Jesus to the first disciples--an unlikely pair of brothers to put it mildly. They were certainly lacking in any experience for the life that lay ahead of them, and not exactly temperamentally suited either. Who would have thought it? Jesus simply called them, saying "Follow me." Their decision to follow him is inexplicable outside of the power of God to change lives. Each of us has a call from God to follow him. Following that call will take us all sorts of interesting places.

Mid-Week Holy Eucharist
