*Readings for the 1st Sunday after Pentecost
Trinity Sunday
June 7, 2020*

Genesis 1:1-2:4a
Psalm 8
2 Corinthians 13:11-13
Matthew 28:16-20

From Your Priest:

"A Great Commission"
Matthew 28:16-20

Jesus makes an impressive statement as he prepares to ascend back to eternity. He tells his disciples to make disciples of everyone, and to baptize in the name of one God in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Strong action verbs—"to make" and "to baptize." The Church then moves into the future in action to proclaim God's revelation of love.

God has revealed that love by what we call the Holy Trinity, the Godhead of unity in three persons. The household of God is not something that may be reduced to an easy understanding. It is too beautiful to be readily grasped, and God's love dwarfs the human imagination. That said, we are deeply blessed by a God who shows divine identity to us, and who goes to such lengths for all that God has made.

THINK ON THIS:

"If we could ever see God's kingdom as He sees it, and if we could ever see one another as He sees us - as individuals designed to come together in a unified goal under His overarching kingdom agenda - then the world would have to deal with the full strength of the church of Jesus Christ. We would truly be the salt and light He designed us to be."

- Dr. Tony Evans, "Accessing Heavenly Authority," Kingdom Living Sermon Series.

"Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation."

Mark 16:15

Bow the Knee

"Trust the heart of your Father when the answer goes beyond what you can see...in the presence of your King, bow the knee." -Chris Machen
